Blaine Said to be Opposed to the Repub licans Adopting a Tariff Bill New Your Ang 15—A Washington special to the Herid says there will probably be no senate tariff bill after all. Blaine who has been heard from wants the issue made distinct between what he calls protection and free trade and does not want it clouded by the necessity of defending the republican bill. These views are not publicly nowed but there is good reason for believing that they represent Blaine's wishes. His opinion is said to have been made known to republican senators by a mutual friend who is reported to be benefor Eugene Hale of Maine who has just returned to Washing ton after a conference with Blaine in New York

NEW YORK AUG 15—A Washington special to the Post this afternoon says. The attention of a member of the committee on finance was called this morning to the published statement that Blaine in a microage to Washington through Senator Hale declared that it was inexpedient for the republicans of the senate to report a tariff bill. He said. This report is true in no particular. It is a light however that a prominent republicans who did see Mr. Blaine in New York and talked with him on tariff matters. It is bring a message to the committee that Mr. It line does not see that the republicans of the senate have any sterriture except to prepare and report a tariff bill. That is the only suggestion that has cone to the committee is the years of Mr. Blume on the sulgest of the republicans.

And this hlow at Northern enterprise and free labor is for the purpose of maintaining as it seems every duty on sugar an article which has been protected forty years and for the protection of which the American people have upon imported sugar the profits of which however accrue to the benefit of the farm honding aristocracy of the South.

And now an obscure issue is sought to make it appear that the republican candidate for Prevident was apposed to Chimese restriction. As to what had been asserted by the senator from Maryland concerning the naturalization of Chimemen in Indiana Dolph said he could not speak as he had never heart of the fat but the religious to the term.

supplemental freaty. This committee was banqueted in San Francisco by a democratic governor and democratic officials and no one at that time seemed to suppose there was danger to be apprehended from Chinese in migration. The treaty was negotiated by Burlingame stipulating the same rights of Chinese subjects in this country as were accorded under the Buchman treaty to American citizens in China.

Dolph read from the executive journals to show that the treaty was ratified by unanimous consent of the senate democrats as well as republicans voting for it. He further study when the people of the Pacific coast came to find Chinese in migration not desirable a republican administration negotiated a treaty authorizing the United States to suspend the coming of Chinese laborers to this country.

Referring to legislabout to enforce the trenty Dolph and the statement of Senator Maxicy at the time when the first bill of 1882 passed the senate showed that Senator Harrison (avored Chinese restriction Schuter Little).

passed the senate showed that Senator H ir rivon favored Chinese restriction. Senator Markey stated that he had received a letter from Senator Harrison, who was detained from the senate on public business exying in substance that if the amendment then pending to reduce the time of restriction to ten years was adopted be (Harrison) was in favor of the bill and that he (Maxx) supposed the amendment not having been idepted that Harrison would be opposed to the bill. The bill hiving passed without this amendment was veloed by the president.

without this amenduant was vetoed by the president.

The senate would have been wise and saved itself much frouble if it had subopted benator Harrison a views for after the veto a bill passed the house which was introduced by a republican congressian for Can forma and came to the senate containing two provisions which were unnecessary and which were opposed by Senator Harrison one being a provision that we Chinaman should be naturalized. Althou, h Chinaman should be naturalized. Althou, h Chinaman should be naturalized at some court in Boston the United battes court of California had decided that Chinase subjects cooled not be naturalized and the adoption of such a provision was not only unnecessary but would look as it congress believed the existing law authorized Chinese to become citizens. Another provision attempted to define laborers. Senator Harrison contended that the term laborers as used in the treaty was broad enough and any explanation would not enlarge it and his opposition to these provisions.

as used in the treaty was broad enough and any explanation would not enlarge it and his opposition to the bill was not to the measure but to these provisions of it.

Dolph then showed that Senator Harri on favored the neuch more stringent bill of 1884 which became a law and that as a member of the committee on foreign relations he joined in the report of a bill in 1886 which passed the senate and which was pigeonholed in the Democratic house. Dolph said that benator Harrison's whole record showed that he was in favor of the restriction of Chinese immigration and the protection of American labor, and that the people of the Pacific coast were not troubling themselves about coansequences.

American labor, and that the people of the Pacific coast were not troubling themselves about consequences.

They were rather waiting anxiously whether the democratic party would succeed in destroying the wool immber and other great industries of the coast and in brenking down the b rier which had been created by the republican party to keep out the cheap labor product of the three buildred and four militons of inhabitants of (bina and the three hundred and fifty militions of inhabitants of India They were looking across the Pacific to Australia with its three militon inhabitants and eight milition sheep and waiting to see whether the democratic party would succeed in opening the floodgates and isting in upon them the cheap wool of Au Iralia. But it mes with poor grace from democratic sen tors concluded Mr Dolph to takk about 1 ofte tion for American labor when this admit trit on like Sampson in the temple of the Ph listines had his arms around the pillar of the great temple of American industry in invoring to pull it down

All these rumors have proved without joundation Gen. Miles has sent from Sin Carlos the following telegram. I have just received a report from Pleasant valley. I was satisfied the report could not be true and made no report of it. It proves entirely without foundation. There are but six men away from their proper camps avoiding street for acts of violence resulting from Indian quarrels. I expect three to surrender here and three to surrender at Apiche. None have left the reservation. Neither have they disturbed the persons or property of white men. They fired upon the scouts but the cause and circumstances cannot be fully explained by telegraph. In the main, all the Indians are under control and a condition of peace previate.

Washington Aug 15—The refusal of the president's Action Creating Such Advisor Comment.

Washington Aug 15—The refusal of the president to sign the rivor and harbor bill has excited severe adverse comment on all sides. His postation is really an avowal of his fear to veto the bill at this political crists, although it is well known that he is opposed to river and harbor bills. It is taken as an indication that when the political pressure is ren oved he will veto such bills in future. The friends of river and harbor improvements are very anxious about the future work of those great water wiys. Next winter Clevelind's fate will have been sealed and he will not be driven by fear to smother his sentiments. He will veto the bill it is said withments. He will veto the bill it is said without any doubt. The news of their arrival had preceded them by three days consequently the Indians all had fied into the woods:

Koycraft summoned the chiefs to a pow-wow, which was attended by all the chiefs and addressed by Indge Fristrubies and Roycraft. Both animal averted very strongly on the Indians' conduct and explained the nature of the British law, and said the Inter, not the Indian, must govern in future. Roycraft said he would appoint all the chiefs special officers, the better to enable them to preserve peace. If there was any more killing the queen would look upon it as a declaration of war and send soldiers to externing to them. The chiefs, in reply, said both had spoken strongly, but there was no hypocrisy about their utter-ances. They would be glad to be appointed special constables, and would be no more killing.

On the bar the depth of water at low water is an or seven feet, and vessels drawing eight or nine feet can safely pass the bar about that time of high water, in moderate weather. Several schooners of 160 tons burthen have been built here, and two sawmills are located on the river which is navigated by light draught boats for forty miles, and small coasters for twenty-eight rules.

Colsettation of Towhoot Companies.

San Francisco, Aug. 15.—The rivalry that has existed between the two rival towhoot companies here for the last two years is at end, the Paeific Towhoot Company having sold out to-day to the ship owners' and merchants' line, better known as the "Red Funnei" company. The terms are private. The Pacific Towhoot Company was composed of Captain Goodall, Edwin Goodall and Capt. Griffiths, and dates back to the early days of shipping Goodall, Edwin Goodall and Capt. Griffiths, and dates back to the early days of shipping on this coast. By the terms of sale the Red Finnel Company will add six more tow boats to its fleet, namely: Monarch, Rescue, Atina, Neptune, Wizard and Water Witch, the Kutic, which is now at San Diego, not being included in the contract. Great Demand for Rolling Stock Great Demand for Kolling Stock.

San Francisco, Aug. 15.—'If we had a hundred more locomotives and a thousand new freight cars we could only supply a portion of the demands for additional rolling stock now coming in to us," remarked a Southern Pacific official this afternoon. "The extent of these orders is unparalleled. We thought we were in a bad enought way in this respect last wister, but it is much worse now. We are using 4500 forcing freight cars—that is cars that belong to other roads—most of them from east of the Missouri river. As the cast-bound freight business is now heavier than the west-bound; many of our cars are, taken Kast, and are often beyond our reach when they are most wanted.

M. Lower California Project.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—A proposition will be made by the International Company of Mexico to the Southern Predict Company to build a new road projected by the former corporation in Lower California. The International will furnish funds for the construction out of the $5,000,000 already raised for that purpose and from the $12,000 a mile subsidy granted by the Mexican government. The agreement as drawn up binds the Southern Pacific to extend either its Pomona & Elsinore road or its Santa Ann line down through San Diego to a connection with the International Company's line at Tia Junta, thus giving the International full and direct outlet to San Francisco.

Forest Fires.

Farest Fires.

Grass Valley, Aug. 15.—Dr. Jones and R. H. Single had a fearful experience last evening. While driving home from a place known as "You Bet" they ran the gauntlet of a hot fire for two miles. On both sides of the road huge pines blazed, and one place on their way was blocked by fallen trees that they had to assist to burn, so as to get a roadway. The absence of wind is all that allowed them to get through. All the timber east of Greenhorn creek is on fire. At Johnston an extensive shingle mill is reported destroyed. Deep Water Terminal Pacifities.

Los Angales, Aug. 15.—The board (supervisors have granted a wharf, franchis on Rattlesnake tilland to the Atchison Topeka & Santa Fe officials. This mean that the company now possesses described in the company new that the company now possesses deep water terminal facilities at San Fedro equal in every way to those of the Southern Facilie. Its line via Long Branch is now graded most to the way, and a large force of men will be put at work to finish it as soon as possible.

put at work to times it as soon as pussione.

San Francisco, Aug. 15.—In some localities in Mexico the propie are suffering a plague in the way of an invasion of rate, which go into towns and villages in large numbers, destroying nearly everything in the way. In some instances destructive conflagrations have been started by rate getting into places where matches are kept and setting into places where matches are kept and setting fire to houses.

Capture of a Condor, Capture of a Condot.

Pomora, Aug. 15.—An enormous condor has been captured by lasso at Purntein this vicinity. It had attacked sheep on the side. of a mountain and attempted to carry a small one away with it. The bird measured nine feet and foot inches from tip to tip of the wings, and as the sneet bird of the drind seen in this locality for several years.

A Batal Vacation.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Minnesota Demogratic Convention.

By Paul, Aug. 15. The demogratic nata convention to nominate state officers and presidential electors, met this mercing? A lively contest ensued between the friends and opponents of Chairman Dorna of the state committee, for control of the temporary organization, and resulted in the choice of P. J. Lomberton, one of Doran's friends. Recess was then taken.

The resolutions reported by the committee congratulate the tax-payers of the state and nation on the nomination of Cleveland and Thurman, and indorse in the attorness tanguage the platform of the mational demogratic party.

E. M. Wilson of Minnaspolis was unanimously nominated for governor.

The irrepressible Doran and anti-Doran contest broke extragale, and the convention adjourned till to morrow without further nominations.

When expense or that of the adjacent property, thereafter the proposed repair is to be deemed an improvement and shall be made accordingly."

This provision of the charter authorizes the council to make this improvement when in its opinion it shall be deemed expedient to do so. There is no other limitation that I can find upon the power of the council. And it does not, as in the form of the owners of one-half of the property affects by the improvement. Like every new venture, many anlooked-for hindrances are met, and it is the desire of the company fully to arrange entrything before starting, and when work is once begun it will continue uninterruptedly.

At present the works are delayed from lack of sufficient coal dust or screenings. This will soon be remedied. On motion the report was adopted. Antone De Grosso had an examination before Justice Tuttie, yesterday, on two charges, preferred by Ignatz Gruenninger. One account charged him with assault and pattery, and the other with attempted outrage upon Mary Gruenninger, the 12-year-old/daighter of the complaining witness. The examination revealed that Dp Grosso was guilty of an assault and he was fined $10.

In the matter of the second charge it was broved by the tastimony of the girl herself that no undue liberties had been offered by the accused, and he was therefore discharged for want of oriminating evidence, and the coast $1, were taxed to the complaining within the second for the court of the second for the fruitess efforts to fasten the office of attempted outrage upon De Grosso he was stopped by Constable Slammon, who served upon him a warrant, sworn to by his wife. Caroline Gruenninger, accusing him of assault and battery. Justice Tuttle then placed him under $220 bonds, to appear before him to-day. The weapon with which Gruenninger was wont to chastise his wife is a place of one-inch hose, about one footlong, filled with sund or shot. Cost PER PUPIL.

Comparing the cost per pupil in average daily attendance with the same item for last year, it will be seen that the cost for this year has been $2.09 nove. The cost for supervision and tuition was increased $1.53; the other 53 cents is accounted for principally in the largely increased incidentals in the amount of tuel used.

Prior to last year the board employed vice principals and supernumeraries. For this service for the year ending June, 1887, there was paid $2500. A year ago these offices were discontinued, and the office of principal's assistant substituted. Six of these assistants were employed, for which service there was paid $2500, an increase of $2550 for this class of service alone. Taking the average daily attendance as the basis—the one used generally and the only one used here—the increased cost per pupil was 36 cents for principal's assistants alone.

Owing to the increased attendance at the Couch, North and Failing schools there was required increased service, costing $1795, or 58 cents each pupil. These two items aggregate $1.54, the next excess over last year for supervision and tuition.

When the quession of the employment of an assistant in each of the six schools was under discussion as year ago the cost was clearly understood and fully canvassed. It an assistant in each of the six schools was under discussion a year ago the cost was clearly understood and fully canvassed. It was, however, deemed a judicious change and a nuch-needed modification of the former scheme, and that the additional cost, which was anticipated, would be a profitable investment.

But for the epidemic of measies during the service arm, the duily attendance for the spring term, the duly attendance for the year would, no doubt, have been at least 4150, which would have reduced the cost per capita to $23 02 for supervision and tuition or only 80 cents increase over last year; all of which would have been due to the increased expenditure for principals' assistants. creased expenditure to the first states.

ALTITUDE OF MT. ADAMS. According to the Burometer the Height of the Old Snow Monarch is 13,785 Feet.

Mr. Dana of Portland, who started for Mt. Mr. Dana of Portland, who started for Mt. Adams, as stated in The Oregonian of July 15, on a prospecting tour, and also to ascertain the altitude of that mountain, has returned to this city. Prior to starting, Mr. Dana had his aneroid barometer compared at the United States signal office in Portland and it was found to be correct, its reading corresponding exactly with the signal service mercurial barometer. Mr. Dana took reading of his horometer structure of his horometer structure of the property than corresponding exactly with the signal service mercential barometer. Mr. Dana took readings of his barometer simultaneous with the signal service; that is, at 5 o'clock A. M., 12 Mr., and 5 P. M. The barometer readings since Mr. Dana's arrival in Portland have been compared with the mean of the reading of the barometer taken at the signal service stations at Portland, Olympia and Walla Walla; then Ending the difference between this mean barometer at sea level and comparing it with Mr. Dana's reading at the same moment of time, it is quite easy to calculate the height of the mountain. The following are some of the heights around Mount Adams and also at the summit:

Camass prairie, 2325.

Trout lake, 2247.

Cornelius ridge, 8458.

The reading of the barometer indicated that the altitude of the summit of Mount Adams was 13,785 feet above sea level.

THE TROUBADOURS.

THE TROUBADOURS.

Speaking of Saulsbury's Troubadours, the Chicago Inter Ocean says:

Jolly Nellie McHenry was never joiller than she is as Sally Styles, in "The Humming Bird." This piece, by the way, is the best the Troubadours have ever had. It is well constructed for its purpose. The business and details are well managed, and the first and third acts are really only to redict the well constructed for its purpose. The business and datalis are well managed, and the tirst and third acts are really quite creditable as farce productions. The complications are amusingly conducted, and it might almost be said they are artistically devised, for it really requires more skill to fashion these than the uninitiated may imagine. Messrs, Fred Williams and George Stout have done their work creditably, and have, moreover, put lines in the mouths of their characters that are not altogether imbecile. "The Humming Bird" is amusing, and though they who laugh may not get much intellectual profit from the entertainment, they need not feel that their evening devoted to "The Humming Bird" has been wholly a loss. Miss McHenry has the part of a lady's maid, who is eager to get upon the stage, and as a preparatory step has memorized great quantities of Shakespesrean verse, portions of which mindle theatficially with her ordinary speech.

POBTLAND, Aug. 15. To the Editor of The Oregonian:
While the people of Portland, East Portland and Albina are discussing the questions involved in consolidation, it would be well, perhaps, to present the subject under discussion in all its phases.

The first thing to be considered in this matter, and the one most likely to influence the people on both sides of the river, is the one of increased taxation, in either of the towns or of all of them,

Now so far as a city government is concerned there can be no question but the three towns can be governed more cheaply when consolidated than they are now with three separate corporations; because of the employment say for instance in the police department, one chief of police would be sufficient for the consolidated city, one clerk, two captains, one police juli, etc., would be sufficient, while there are now the tain.

One superintendent of schools, one high school, and one school clerk would be all sufficient for the consolidated city, and each of the towns would have the advantage of the best material that the combined ability of all to employ would command.

Then the crection of wharves and the maintenance of wharf lines and wharfingers and harber police, for noted beets etc.

maintenance of wharf lines and wharfingers and harbor police, fire patrol boats, etc., would be under one government, which it appears to me to be sufficient argument to secure a very large majority of our people in favor of consolidation.

There is one matter that may cause discussion, because it is one of the most important matters with which the consolidation would have to deal, i.e., the water question would have to deal, i.e., the water question. Most of the people on the west side of the river are dissatished with the present water supply, and this would be a proper the river are dissatisfied with the present water supply, and this would be a proper subject to be discussed in all meetings held by the people on both sides of the river. Are the people willing to incur an indebtedness sufficient to bring in a sufficient supply of water from the mountains, which will not cost less than $3,000,000, or would they be content to pump for a few years longer from the Willamette river.

Should consolidation be consummated two systems could not be maintained. East Portland and Albina would want the advantage of the city water supply of Portland, at least for fire purposes, and which they would be taxed to maintain. Besides the present organization of the committee who have the management of the water supply of Portland is unsatisfactory because of the way it was formed, which is undemocratic and takes the matter out of the hands of the people of Portland, who are the parties now most interested.

One section of the charter governing this

Portland, who are the parties now most interested.

One section of the charter governing this question provides that no person shall be a member of the commission who does not pay a city tax of $25 per annum. Also that the members shall hold office for ten years; that the governor shall appoint members of the commission, etc.

Now these are matters pertinent to the matter of consolidation. These subjects should be discussed fully before the meeting of the next legislature. I, for one, believe that our members of the legislature should be fully informed as to the wishes of the people of both sides of the river, and then they should comply with the wishes of the majority.

pie of both sades of the river, and men they should comply with the wishes of the majority.

The plan, in my opinion, for the election of the water commission would be for the whole people who pay either a water or a property tax to vote a special election, to be held cach year, for a certain number of them, just as our school elections are held. There is no reason why the man who pays a city tax of $5 per annum is not as justly softighed to be a member of the commission of five with a sulary of $500 a year with but little to do as the man who pays $25 a year city tax, and there is no reason why the man who owns a lot on which he lives and who pays a water tax of $125 per month when it is all be has, as the man who owns a whole block and only pays on an average of $5 of water tax.

Let all persons who pay a tax, either on property or a water tax, vote at a water commission election and hold office in the water commission election and held office in the water commission election and held office in the commission election and hold office in the water commission, and be ligible to the five fat offices of $500 a year with but little to do, which they are now excluded from doing, yet have to contribute to pay for.

These are subjects for discussion in this consolidation scheme. An expression on this subject should be had from the people of Portland whether the consolidation takes place or not.

Should Virginia break. Ways from this column to November and away from this column is November and cast twelve electoral votes for the republican candidates, it would indoubtedly prove that at the democrate." Probably Virginia will not bresk tway, since the sectional fedwill not oreas away, since the sentiers states ing is 600 strong; but if the Southern states would all vote as their interests demand, in-stead of voting under the impulse of sec-tional feeling and haired of she North, the democratic electeral vote down there would be small, and democratic representatives in

The Previdence Journal, which wants free trade in wool for the benefit of the manufacturers of New England, says:

There is not a woolen manufacturer in the country who will deny that he will be in favor of free wool except from fear of the threat of the Wool Growers' Association that it would demand the sholition of the ditter on woolen goods by way of revenge.

Not "by way of rawinge," but simply as a matter of justice. If wool does not need pro-tection woolen cloth does not need it. And if free trade in wool would cheapen clothing free trade in woolen goode would chenpen clothing still more; and if cheapness is the sole desideratum, let us have free trade all

A. P. Fitch, a member of congress from New York city, elected as a republican, an-nounces his withdrawai from the party. Fitch was one of the two republicans who voted for the Mills bill. He represents a brown-stone district in which wealthy im-porters and tree traders live, and therefore opposes the protective noticy of the country. opposes the protective policy of the country.

The Markanta.—For the past two weeks or mosa the lighthouse tender Markanita has been down the southern coast delivering the usual supplies to the various stations and slooking after the buoyage. A few days ago the tender arrived at Astoria, where she is at present. As the stemes has not been along Puget sound waters for some time she will probably make an inspection cruise before leaving. It is also guite probable that the Markanita will make her annual trip to the waters of Alaska to look generally after the interests of commerce and navigation in those waters.

His dementia is supposed to be toe to dichoholic indulgences. About two weeks ago he was romoved to St. Vincent's hospital at which place he attempted self destruction Tuesday by cutting his throat with a piece of glass. Hie malady is of a peculiar form passing from the deepest melancholia to the most violent ravings.

Supplementary Building.—The new supplementary building for the accommodation of the North school is about completed. It contains four large class-rooms, a teacher's effice, and numerous closets, etc. The basement is of brick and will be well fitted up with modern appliances. The busement is 40x83 feet; the two stories are each fifteen feet, while the height over all is about forty feet. The entrance is arched over, and directly above it, surmounting the whole, is a latticed cupols. The building when completed will seat about 300 pupils, and the total cost will aggregate about $10,000.

hold those offices? It might have been hetter and perhaps would now be a step in advance if such had been the case, but was that the legislative intent at that time?

If we turn to the constitution of the United States we find that the whole structure of the instrument is based upon the idea present in the minds of the makers of it that the offices provided for therein shall be makes. In the first place, and as of minor importance, the form of every word in the constitution relating to the holding of offices under the constitution is masculine. It provides that the senate shall be composed of two senators from each state. No person shall be composed of two senators from each state. No person shall be resident of the senate. No person shall be president of the senate. No person shall be eligible to the office of president except a native born citizen, who shall hold his office during the term of four years, and shall be elected as therein provided.

The judicial power shall be vested in one supreme courf, the judiges whereof shall hold their office during good behavior. In numerous other instances it is conclusively apparent that at the time of the framing of that instrument the idea of a woman holding office under that constitution was as foreign to the mind as that a woman might be president under that constitution was as foreign to the mind as that a woman night be president under that constitution was as foreign to the mind as that a woman night be president under that constitution was as foreign to the mind as that a woman night be president under that constitution was as foreign to the mind as that a woman night be president under that constitution we are seen an express negation that there would have been an express negation in that regard. Such has been the uniform practical construction ever since its adoption, and for more than their years our organio, act has likewise been construed to mean "male citizen" when the privilege of voting has been under consideration, and the construction of han act of the destend of giving it, as is alone by the Federal constitution, and except he limited by the constitution of the sate of of the limited States. The state legislature of the limited States, the state legislature of the same connection, and it rests with the supreme power to the veiling of the people under their irreduction.

The organic act of the territory in this respect furnishes a constitutional limitation beyond which the legislature of the territory in the spect furnishes a constitutional limitation beyond which the legislature of the territory in the respect furnishes a constitutional limitation beyond which the legislature of the territory in the respect furnishes a constitutional limitation beyond which the legislature of the provent of the content of the provent of the limitations to each branch thereof. Sectition 5 revoked Statutes, sec. 5996; 10 Statutes at Large in the use of the word "citizen" as found in the organic act.

Revised Statutes, and constanting the course of Murphy vs. Runneys 114 United States, and those of the course in the use of the of March 22, 1882, providing for the appointment and pre-cribing the duties and powers of that board, it shows that they have no functions whatever to perform in respect to the qualification of voters, much less to prescribe any qualification of voters as a condition of registration. It is true that the court in that case consider the questions involved without reference to the question of the right of females to vote under the laws of Utah, and place it upon the ground that the board were powerless in that regard, and therefore we consider that decision as without force in this regard.

And it appears therefrom conclusively that the supreme court by that decision furnished no ground whatever for the contention here made that the laws of Utah authorizing woman suffrage have received the sanction of that court.

The case of Minor vs. Happersett, 2! Wailace 162, is also alted for the purpose of showing that the provisions of the fourteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States, wherein it is said that all persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside, are by the words used an affirmance of the construction contended for by appellant. The decision proceeds upon an exactly opposite theory and denies the document but the proposition that the legislature bas the right to confer the privilege of saffrage upon female citizens, nor can it be true, unless it be further contended that at the time of the passage of the organic act of the territory the word citizen nor can it be true, unless it be further contended that at the time of the passage of the organic act of the territory the word citizen nor can it be true, unless it be further contended that at the time of the passage of the organic act of the territory the word citizen nor can it be true, unless it be further contended that at the time of the passage of the organi

Admiration Evinced by the Writers—Sheridan's Brilliant Achievements.

New York Tribune (table.

London, Aug. 7.—Gen. Sheridan's death attracts much altention and elicits many expressions of sympathy and admiration. The Times gives him two columns. Like other English papers it does him some justice, but not complete justice. The English have never yet got over their notion that the American civil war was at the end as at the be inning a war of amateurs. "Gen. Sheridan," says the Times," had an eagle eye for piercing through the designs of the enemy and for detecting at a glance all their weak points." Not much like an amateur, that. Most of this long article, however, is devoted to a narrative of Sheridan's entreer.

"He was," says the Daily News, "not only the most brillant cavairy officer that was produced on either side, but he was both a factician and a strategist, capable of the most extensive combinations and able to carry out far-reaching plans, and he had the merve, resource and decision for emergencies that were wanting to some of the greatrist strategists, notably the Archduke Charies." Well, that is not amateur-like, either; and those of us who most admired Sheridan may be content to see him put above the general whom Napoton reckoned his ablest opponent.

There is nuch more in this Daily News article which deserves quoting. None so good has been printed, none which shows such knowledge of Sheridan the man and of Sheridan the soldier. Says the writer: "llis warmth of nature and the peculiar character of his genulas made bim loved. He was one of the most soldierly soldiers of his time. He united brilliant courage, which he owed to his Irish origin, to perfect steadiness and presence of mind in emergencies."

Other papers write in high eulogy. "Phil Sheridan," says the Mainer elias and the patchetic incidents of that memorable episode of soldierly and to-a nan end the French troops; but fre can have been hy Prince Bismarck. I don't know whether Sheridan's presence during a

PUGET SOUND SHIPPING.

Forty Vessels Now on Boute Up the Coast for Various Ports.

Bivaley of Brokers-Scarcity of Deep-Water Sailors-Vessels Now Loading-Shipments for the First Week in August.

PORT TOWNSEND, Aug. 14.—Considerable duliness in Puget sound shipping has been experienced this month, which is partly socounted for by a combination of the ele-ments in not favoring the large fleet of vesments in not favoring the large fleet of vessels now bound here with lair winds. About lorty vessels are en route tip the coast destined for Puget sound and British Columbia ports was all you such instances all of the fleet will arrive in together, occasioning lively times around the port of entry. It is quite amusing for a landsman to witness the many phases of a shipbroker's existence on Puget cound. Most of them are provided with steam hunches and whitehall boats, and go a considerable distance down the Straits to neet the incoming fleet. The representatives of the rival firms are quite friendly ashore, but the moment the quarter deck is reached on a vessel coming here to load foreign the apparent friendlights changes to arctic associations. The broker will begin by impressing the fact upon the englain that his firm letthe only refinible one by which the master can serting the lowest rates. Then the other brokers commence. If there is any desire on the part of the observer to listen to the past history of any broken, he will be accommodated. In many instances remarks have been emphasized by ornamental surrandings of the optic.

The Hastings's sawmills ofer on Burrard inlet, British Columbia, is being extensively improved. Another mill is being erected with a daily cutting capacity of 90,000 feet. The company can then manufacture about. 190,000 feet of imber per day. It is sursels now bound here with fair winds. About with a daily cutting capacity of 90,900 feet, the company can then manufacture about 160,000 feet of lumber per day. It is surprising that larger mills have not been built in British. Columbia before now, as that country has an abundance of timber and demands for large orders. Only two lumber mills on the inlet of any consequence export lumber and both complined would hardly equal any of the large sawmills on Paget sound.

iumber and both combined would hardly equal any of the large sawmills on Puget sound.

The Port Blakely mills, owned by Renton. Holmes & Co., are being largely improved and by the last of next month the distinction of the largest lumber factory in North America will be centered at that port. About 350,000 feet per day is reckoned as the output. The old mills were burned last February and before the fire was extinguished plans and specifications for the largest mill of the kind in the world were being considered.

The American bark Sarah & Ridgeway has been in the harbor for the last week trying to ship a crew for Shanghaf, China, where the vessel is bound lumber laden. Deep water seamen are vory scarce and shipmasters are compelled to pay a small bonus for men. Consting sallors can be had at the old rate of wages and are quite pientiful. The nine ringleaders of the striking mob of union sallors here last spring are still domicited in the county jail.

The first week of this month $125,285 worth of lumber and coal was sent from Puget Sound to forgish and coastwise ports. Seattle ranked first by shipping 400 tons of coal, valued at $25,000; Tacoma followed by exporting about $18,000 worth of coal and lumber.

The following vessels are on Puget sound engaged in the coal and lumber trade:

At Tacoma-Ships State of Maine, for Shanghai; Wm. H. McGilvery, for Valparaiso; Dashing Ware and R. P. Buck for San Francisco, and St. Francis discharging; barks Samorset for San Francisco, Gloria for McBourne, Saranac for Valparaiso, Madreia for United Kingdom, barkentine Jennie B. for Sydney and the schooner William G. Wityman for Hobson's bay. Total tonnage, 14,580 tons.

Port Blakely has six vessels loading with an aggregate tonnage of 3006 tons. All are bound to foreign ports except one, the schooner Courser for Domoda beach. The other vessels are the British burks Pak Wan and I ris for Melbourne, Norwegian bark Passepartout, American ship Ivy tor Mel-

There were two contracts awarded for the building—one for the basement, and the other for the upper part and the roof. Already the masons are at work, and there is a vigorous ringing of trowels and the brick and mortar is flying at a lively rate. Carpenters are also as busy as beavers and by baturday evening it is expected that the flooring of the basement story will nearly alt be down. Practically the building will be fire-proof as the basement so fatone the miln structure being of brick and the roof of corrugated non-By October I the building is to be completed and ready for the reception of the machinery according to the contract. Before that date it is expected all the machinery will be completed at Chicago and sent out here. It is expected the building will be huished even before the machinery all arrives. Probably by the middle of October the mill will be incondition for active operation.
